Supply and Delivery of Various PFMCP Training Collaterals (Certificate Holder)

Terms of Reference

I. BACKGROUND

The Capacity Development Division (CDD) of the Advocacy, Communications and Training Service (ACTS) seeks to enhance the technical competencies of Public Financial Management (PFM) practitioners both in oversight and spending agencies across the government. To facilitate this endeavor, the CDD has partnered with select State Universities and Colleges (SUCs) under a twinning arrangement: in which these selected SUCs will run the PFM Competency Program (PFMCP) while the CDD will continuously monitor its implementation.

To achieve a nationwide reach and expand its accessibility to as many PFM practitioners as possible, the ACTS will continue the implementation of the PFMCP through the launch of the program in a digital platform. The procurement of the various training materials and supplies shall support the various activities of the ACTS-CDD in its continuous implementation of the PFMCP.

The schedule of procurement of the said items is in January 2024.
