

Republic of the Philippines
DEPARTMENT OF BUDGET AND MANAGEMENT

Philippine Government Directory of Agencies and Officials

About the Cover

Mindanawon life is a colorful depiction of Filipino culture and progress, regardless of religion, race, or geographic orientation.

This year's cover design pays homage to this diversity.

You will see distinct facets in the everyday lives of the Mindanawon: their livelihoods and the goods they produce, crafts representing their heritage, and the festivals they celebrate. We feature Davao's famous icons such as the Philippine eagle, walingwaling, and durian; the famous tuna from General Santos City; the vintas from the Regatta de Zamboanga, the highlight of the yearly Hermosa Festival; Cagayan de Oro's motorela; the St. Augustine Cathedral where the giant Oro fish is said to live underneath, according to local lore; and the iconic Sulu Provincial Capitol, considered one of the most beautiful capitol buildings in the country with its golden domes and Moorish-inspired architectural design.

Mindanao is also home to vibrant prints. The first illustration portrayed in the connected circles depicts the silk and cotton Inaul fabric from the people of Maguindanao. We also feature the Yakan fabric (third illustration) made by the Yakan people from Basilan and the Zamboanga Peninsula; as well as T'nalak, an abaca fabric woven by the T'boli women (eighth illustration). Its design comes to the weaver through a dream, thus earning South Cotabato the nickname "Land of the Dreamweavers". Geometric and flowing patterns inspired by the okir motif, which decorate the background and top and bottom borders of the cover, depict the indigenous artistry and skill of the Maranaos.

Distinct yet interconnected, the points are linked to each other through lines that form the shape of a traditional telephone receiver, representing correspondence and communication among the diverse peoples and institutions of Mindanao.

Its varied people, vivid culture, and splendid natural beauty altogether make up the unique wonder that is Mindanao—truly the Philippines' land of promise.

CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES

CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES

The 1987 Constitution of the Philippines provides for the creation of offices that are independent and autonomous, and whose mandates and functions are defined by the Constitution itself.

These Constitutional Offices are the following:

- Civil Service Commission (CSC), which is the central personnel agency of the government
- Commission on Elections (COMELEC), tasked to enforce and administer all laws and regulations relative to the conduct of elections, plebiscites, initiatives, referenda and recall
- Commission on Audit (COA), whose primary duty is to examine, audit and settle all accounts pertaining to the revenue and receipts of, and expenditures or uses of funds and property owned or held in trust by the Government or any of its subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities.

The following are also considered constitutionally mandated bodies:

- Commission on Human Rights (CHR), with the primary function of investigating all forms of human rights violations involving civil and political rights
 - Office of the Ombudsman, which has the power to investigate on its own or upon complaint, any act or omission of any public official, employee, office or agency deemed to be illegal, unjust, improper or inefficient.

GOCCs AND SUCs

GOVERNMENT-OWNED AND/OR -CONTROLLED CORPORATIONS

Government-owned and/or -controlled corporations (GOCCs), as defined by Presidential Decree No. 2029 (February 1986) and Memorandum Order No. 64 (1993), are agencies organized as stock or non-stock corporations, vested with functions relating to public needs, whether governmental or proprietary in nature, and owned by the Government of the Philippines directly or through its instrumentalities. Established to engage in either commercial or non-commercial activities, such agencies may be wholly-owned by the government or, in the case of stock corporations, the government has direct or indirect ownership of the majority of its capital stock. Some GOCCs have been created by special laws and most have their own charter defining their governance and responsibilities.

By virtue of R.A. No. 10149 (GOCC Governance Act of 2011), GOCCs, except for the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas, state universities and colleges, cooperatives, local water districts, economic zone authorities and research institutions, are monitored by the Governance Commission for GOCCs (GCG). The GCG serves as the central advisory and oversight body to determine the relevance and evaluate the performance of these corporations. It also has the power and function to ascertain whether or not they should be reorganized, merged, streamlined, abolished, or privatized.

STATE UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

State universities and colleges (SUCs) are public higher education institutions that have been created or organized by an act of Congress.

For AY 2021-2022, the Commission on Higher Education lists a total of 114 SUCs, with 432 satellite campuses.

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

As provided for by the Constitution, the Congress of the Philippines is the bicameral legislative body of the Philippine Government which has the power to enact laws, including the General Appropriations Act. In addition to its legislative mandate, the Congress also performs functions such as the confirmation of Presidential appointments, impeachment, declaration of the existence of a state of war and concurrence or confirmation of the amnesty granted by the President.

The Congress is divided into two chambers: the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Senate consists of 24 duly elected Senators, 12 of whom are replaced or re-elected every three years, to ensure continuity of policies, as well as the availability of experienced members who can help and train newcomers in the discharge of duties.

The House of Representatives of the 19th Congress is composed of 252 Geographical District Representatives and 63 Sectoral Representatives. The Sectoral Representatives constitute about 20 percent of the total number of the Members of the House. Each Representative serves for a term of three (3) years, and can be re-elected for two (2) additional consecutive terms.

JUDICIAL BRANCH

JUDICIAL BRANCH

The Constitution vests judicial power in the Supreme Court and in such lower courts as may be established by law.

At present, these lower courts are the Court of Appeals, Trial Courts (Regional, Metropolitan, Municipal and Municipal Circuit Trial Courts), Special Courts (Sandiganbayan and Court of Tax Appeals), and Shari'a Courts (Shari'a District and Circuit Courts). The Supreme Court exercises administrative supervision over all courts and their personnel.

As provided for by the Constitution, judicial power includes the duty of the courts of justice to settle actual controversies involving legally demandable and enforceable rights, and to determine whether or not there has been a grave abuse of discretion amounting to lack or excess of jurisdiction on the part of any branch or instrumentality of the Government.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS

LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS

Local Government Units (LGUs) serve as partners of the National Government in advancing the country's development agenda. They are both political and corporate bodies, endowed with powers to manage local affairs and promote the welfare of the people within their respective territorial jurisdictions. The Philippines has 82 provinces, 148 cities, 1,486 municipalities, and 42,027 barangays.*

The heads of LGUs are elected by their constituents and, except for barangay officials, serve for a term of three (3) years. They may be re-elected for two (2) additional consecutive terms.

DIPLOMATIC OFFICES AND INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

DIPLOMATIC OFFICES

The Philippine government has welcomed 207 diplomatic and consular missions to the country.

Metro Manila hosts most of these embassies, which conduct a full range of diplomatic activities and services, including the development of commercial, economic, cultural and scientific relations between the Philippines and their respective home countries, and the issuance of passports, travel documents, and visas. Some consular missions are located outside of Metro Manila, but still in key cities of the archipelago, primarily to facilitate the delivery of services to their citizens, as well as to Filipinos.

There are resident and non-resident missions. The former have embassies or chanceries, with the respective head of mission located in the Philippines. The latter, on the other hand, have missions based outside the country.

The premier diplomatic mission in the Philippines is that of the Holy See, the Apostolic Nunciature. Its head, the Apostolic Nuncio, is by tradition the Dean of the Diplomatic Corps.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

International organizations that have established offices in the Philippines are focused on various functions and issues, depending on their mandates. These include information and monitoring of global trends, delivery of services such as health, social action and humanitarian aid, providing venues for economic and political discourse, and settling of disputes. While most of these organizations have their primary headquarters in Metro Manila, a number of them have regional offices to provide better access to their stakeholders and clients.
