Philippine Government
Directory of Agencies and Officials

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
DEPARTMENT OF BUDGET AND MANAGEMENT

Note from the Publisher:

The contents of this publication, including the names and positions of the government officials, and contact details, are based on data available as of October 30, 2020 as validated by the agencies, except when updated before the actual publication date.

Message

Never before has transparency in governance been more critical than it is today, as our way of life, our society, and even how our government operates have been altered by the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic. In these days of uncertainty, how the government communicates information to address the concerns of the citizenry is crucial in building trust in its policies and responses to the global health crisis.

This present reality underscores more than ever why the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) continues to publish the Philippine Government Directory of Agencies and Officials.

For over three decades, the Directory has served as the people's gateway to government information and services—from the National, Legislative, and Judicial branches to the local government units and international organizations.

With the prevailing health and safety protocols, particularly the observance of physical distancing, the Directory allows for easy, contactless transactions as it provides consolidated and up-to-date contact details of all agencies and officials of the government. An electronic copy of the Directory is available on the DBM website so that the people have freer access to it.

We hope that our readers and stakeholders find this latest issue of the Directory to be truly an informative and reliable resource, especially in these trying times. Feedback and suggestions on how we can further improve the succeeding editions are always welcome.

Thank you and God bless us all.

CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES

The 1987 Constitution of the Philippines provides for the creation of offices that are independent and autonomous, and whose mandates and functions are defined by the Constitution itself.

These Constitutional Offices are the Civil Service Commission (CSC), which is the central personnel agency of the government; the Commission on Elections (COMELEC), tasked to enforce and administer all laws and regulations relative to the conduct of elections, plebiscites, initiatives, referenda and recall; and the Commission on Audit (COA), whose primary duty is to examine, audit, and settle all accounts pertaining to the revenue and receipts of, and expenditures or uses of funds and property, owned or held in trust by, or pertaining to, the Government, or any of its subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities.

The terms of office of the heads of these Constitutional Offices are fixed and defined by the Constitution.

The Commission on Human Rights (CHR), with the primary function of investigating all forms of human rights violations involving civil and political rights, and the Office of the Ombudsman, which has the power to investigate on its own or upon complaint, any act or omission of any public official, employee, office or agency deemed to be illegal, unjust, improper or inefficient, are likewise Constitutionally-mandated bodies.

GOCCs and SUCs

Government-Owned and/or -Controlled Corporations

Government-owned and/or -controlled corporations (GOCCs), as defined by the Presidential Decree No. 209 (February 1986) and Memorandum Order No. 64 (1993), are agencies organized as stock or non-stock corporations, vested with functions relating to public needs, whether governmental or proprietary in nature, and owned by the Government of the Philippines directly or through its instrumentalities. Established to engage in either commercial or non-commercial activities, such agencies may be wholly-owned by the government or, in the case of stock corporations, the government has direct or indirect ownership of the majority of its capital stock. Some GOCCs have been created by special laws and most have their own charter defining their governance and responsibilities.

By virtue of R.A. No. 10149 (GOCC Governance Act of 2011), GOCCs, except for the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas, state universities and colleges, cooperatives, local water districts, economic zone authorities and research institutions, are monitored by the Governance Commission for GOCCs (GCG). The GCG serves as the central advisory and oversight body to determine the relevance and evaluate the performance of these corporations. It also has the power and function to ascertain whether or not they should be reorganized, merged, streamlined, abolished, or privatized.

State Universities and Colleges

State Universities and Colleges (SUCs) are public higher education institutions (HEIs) that have been created or organized by an act of Congress. As of August 6, 2020, the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) lists a total of 112 SUCs, with 421 satellite campuses, for Academic Year (AY) 2019-2020. For AY 2019-2020, total enrolment in SUCs has reached 1,575,645 as of October 8, 2020. This represents 44.8 percent of the total enrolment of 3,408,425 in all public and private HEIs.

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

As provided for by the Constitution, the Congress of the Philippines is the bicameral legislative body of the Philippine Government which has the power to enact laws, including the General Appropriations Act. In addition to its legislative mandate, the Congress also performs functions of non-legislative in nature such as the confirmation of Presidential appointments, impeachment, declaration of the existence of a state of war and concurrence or confirmation of the amnesty granted by the President.

The Congress is divided into two chambers: the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Senate consists of 24 duly elected Senators, 12 of whom are replaced or re-elected every three years, to ensure continuity of policies, as well as the availability of experienced members who can help and train newcomers in the discharge of duties.

The House of Representatives of the 18th Congress is composed of 243 Geographical District Representatives and 64 Sectoral Representatives. The Sectoral Representatives constitute about 21 percent of the total number of the Members of the House. Each Representative serves for a term of three (3) years, and can be re-elected for two (2) additional consecutive terms

JUDICIAL BRANCH

The Constitution vests judicial power in the Supreme Court and in such lower courts as may be established by law.

At present, these lower courts are the Court of Appeals, Trial Courts (Regional, Metropolitan, Municipal and Municipal Circuit Trial Courts), Special Courts (Sandiganbayan and Court of Tax Appeals), and Shari'a Courts (Shari'a District and Circuit Courts). The Supreme Court exercises administrative supervision over all courts and their personnel.

As provided for by the Constitution, judicial power includes the duty of the courts of justice to settle actual controversies involving legally demandable and enforceable rights, and to determine whether or not there has been a grave abuse of discretion amounting to lack of or excess jurisdiction on the part of any branch or instrumentality of the Government.

LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Local Government Units (LGUs) serve as partners of the National Government in advancing the country's development agenda. They are both political and corporate bodies, endowed with powers to manage local affairs and promote the welfare of the people within their respective territorial jurisdictions. As of September 30, 2020, there are 81 provinces, 146 cities, 1,488 municipalities, and 42,046 barangays.*

The heads of LGUs, except barangay officials (which shall be determined by law) are elected by their constituents and serve for a term of three years. As provided for by the Constitution, they may be re-elected for two additional consecutive terms.

DIPLOMATIC OFFICES AND INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Diplomatic and Consular Missions

Over the years, the Philippine government has welcomed various diplomatic and consular missions to the country. Metro Manila hosts most of these embassies, which conduct a full range of diplomatic activities and services, including the development of commercial, economic, cultural and scientific relations between the Philippines and their respective home countries, and the issuance of passports, travel documents, and visas. Some consular missions are located outside of Metro Manila, but still in key cities of the archipelago, primarily to facilitate the delivery of services to their citizens, as well as to Filipinos.

There are resident and non-resident missions. The former have embassies or chanceries, with the respective head of mission located in the Philippines. The latter, on the other hand, have missions based outside the country.

The premier diplomatic mission in the Philippines is that of the Holy See, the Apostolic Nunciature. Its head, the Apostolic Nuncio, is by tradition the Dean of the Diplomatic Corps.

International Organizations

International organizations that have established offices in the Philippines are focused on various functions and issues, depending on their mandates. These include information and monitoring of global trends, delivery of services such as health, social action and humanitarian aid, providing venues for economic and political discourse, and settling of disputes. While most of these organizations have their primary headquarters in Metro Manila, a number of them have regional offices to provide better access to their stakeholders and clients.
