

Tariff Commission

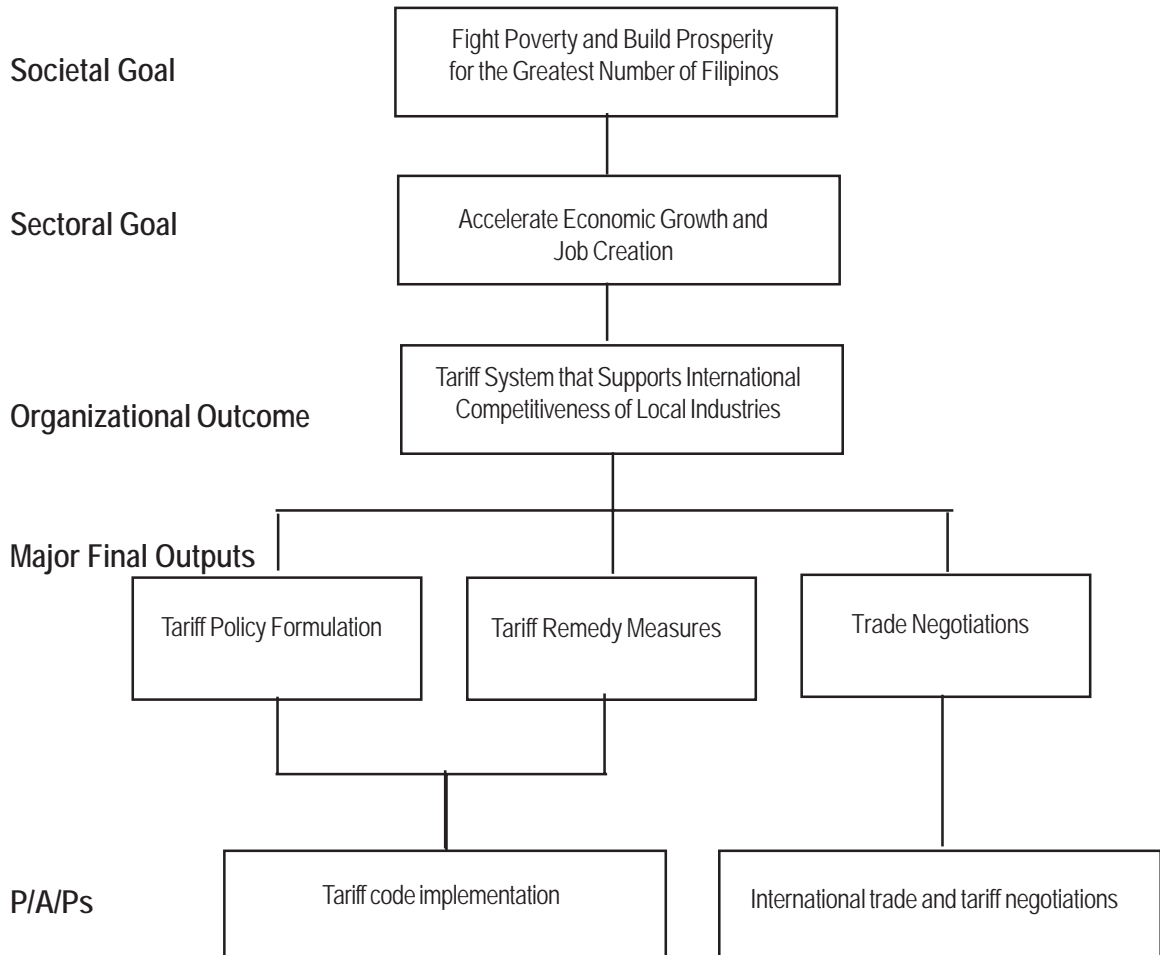

Legal Basis

- Republic Act No. 1937 (June 22, 1957), or the Tariff and Customs Code of the Philippines, mandated the Tariff Commission as the sole agency to administer the tariff law.
- Republic Act No. 8751 (August 7, 1999), or the Countervailing Duty Act of 1999, mandated the Commission to investigate and decide cases of actionable subsidization by foreign countries.
- Republic Act No. 8752 (August 12, 1999), or the Anti-Dumping Act of 1999, mandated the Commission to investigate and decide dumping cases.
- Executive Order No. 143 (August 21, 1999) instituted effective operational mechanism and strategies in the Tariff Commission, thereby strengthening its functions.
- Republic Act No. 8800 (July 19, 2000), or the Safeguard Measures Act of 2000, mandated the Commission to investigate import surge as the substantial cause of serious injury to the domestic industry under fair trade conditions.

Mandate

The Tariff Commission develops, formulates, and recommends tariff policies and programs consistent with national economic objectives, and enforces and administers the provisions of the Tariff and Customs Code.
