

PRESIDENTIAL LEGISLATIVE LIAISON OFFICE

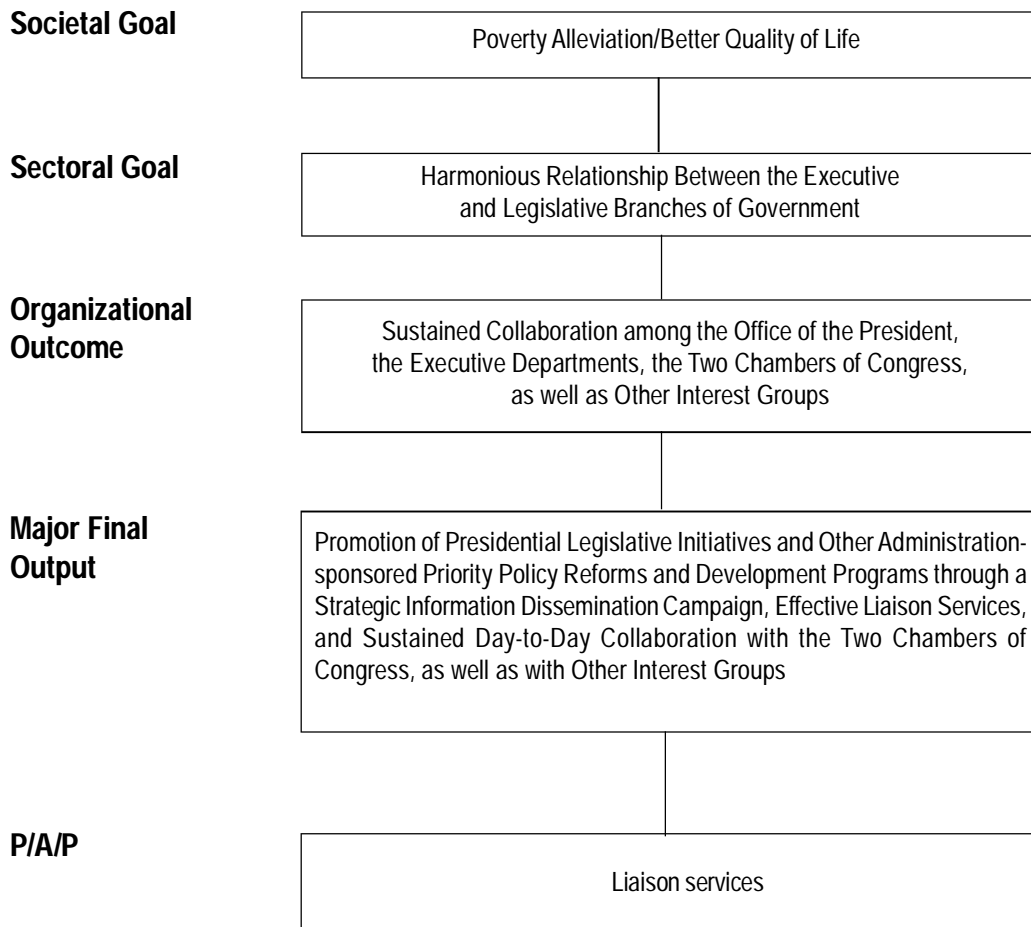

Legal Basis

Memorandum Order No. 128 (November 11, 1987), as amended by Memorandum Order No. 142 (December 17, 1987), created the Presidential Legislative Liaison Office (PLLO) under the Office of the President.

Mandate

The PLLO promotes presidential legislative initiatives and other Administration-sponsored priority policy reforms and development programs through a strategic information dissemination campaign and sustained day-to-day collaboration with the two Chambers of Congress as well as with other interest groups to generate maximum support for the President and the Administration. It orchestrates the formulation and the shepherding of the President's Legislative Agenda and all other concerns of the Executive Department.
