

Philippine National Police

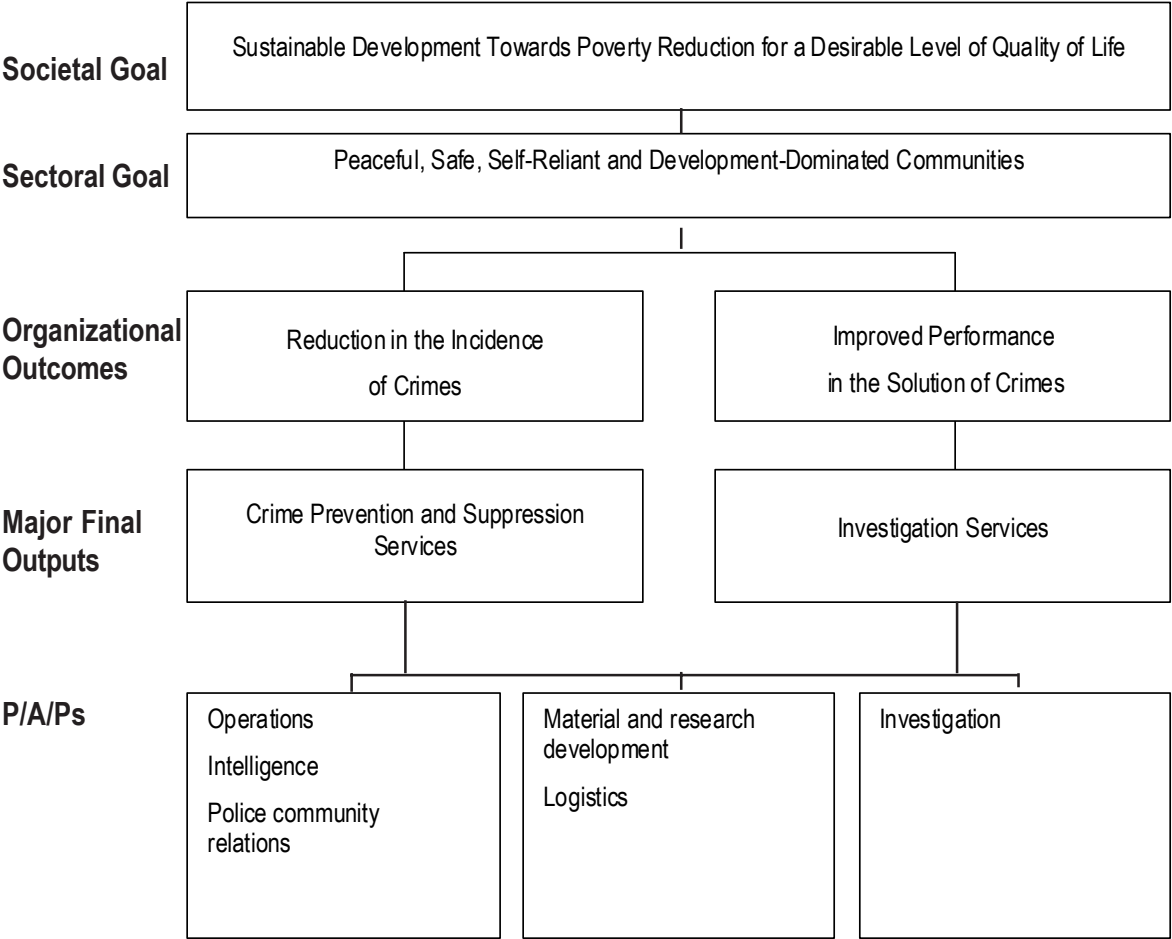

Legal Basis

- Republic Act No. 6975 (December 13, 1990) established the Philippine National Police (PNP) under a reorganized Department of the Interior and Local Government.
- Republic Act No. 8551 (February 25, 1998) amended certain provisions of R.A. 6975 and provided for the reform and reorganization of the PNP.

Mandate

The Philippine National Police (PNP) enforces all laws and ordinances relative to the protection of lives and properties. It maintains peace and order and takes all necessary steps to ensure public safety, investigates and prevents crime, effects the arrest of criminal offenders, brings offenders to justice, and assists in their prosecution. The PNP also exercises general powers to make arrest, search and seizure in accordance with the Constitution and pertinent laws, and to detain an arrested person for a period not beyond what is prescribed by law. It performs such other responsibilities as issuing licenses for the possession of firearms and explosives as well as licenses for security agencies to operate, and for security guards and private detectives to practice their profession.
