

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The OPIF Team (Directors and Staff of the Budget Operations Bureaus):

Budget and Management Bureau (BMB) A (Infrastructure and Industry Sector), BMB-B (Social Services Sector), BMB-C (General Public Services Sector), BMB-D (Government Corporations and Local Government and National Defense), BMB-E (Rural Development Sector), for their leadership and commitment in the development process of the OPIF;

The DBM Project Management Office Staff, for providing dependable technical and secretariat support services, and volunteering for some other additional tasks;

The DBM Training and Information Staff, for providing technical and production support, transforming the documents into informative and learning materials, and supplying the ‘information gaps’;

The Management and Staff of the 20 Implementing Departments and their attached agencies, particularly the Planning and Finance Services/Staffs, for responding to the call for reform and for their active participation in providing the necessary information required in the process;

The Management and Staff of DBM Oversight Partners:

the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) and the Commission on Audit (COA), for supporting the reform process, providing valuable insights, and enriching the exercise;

The Official Development Assistance Partners:

AusAid, ADB, World Bank, and their local and foreign consultants, for providing the resources and technical assistance to sustain the OPIF development and mainstreaming efforts;

The sectoral experts and resource persons the DBM has consulted and requested to participate in the development and mainstreaming process; and,

DBM past and present Executives and Senior Officials, for championing PEM reforms, especially Secretary Rolando G. Andaya, Jr., for believing in the OPIF and pushing for the production of the “OPIF Book”.
