

The National Library

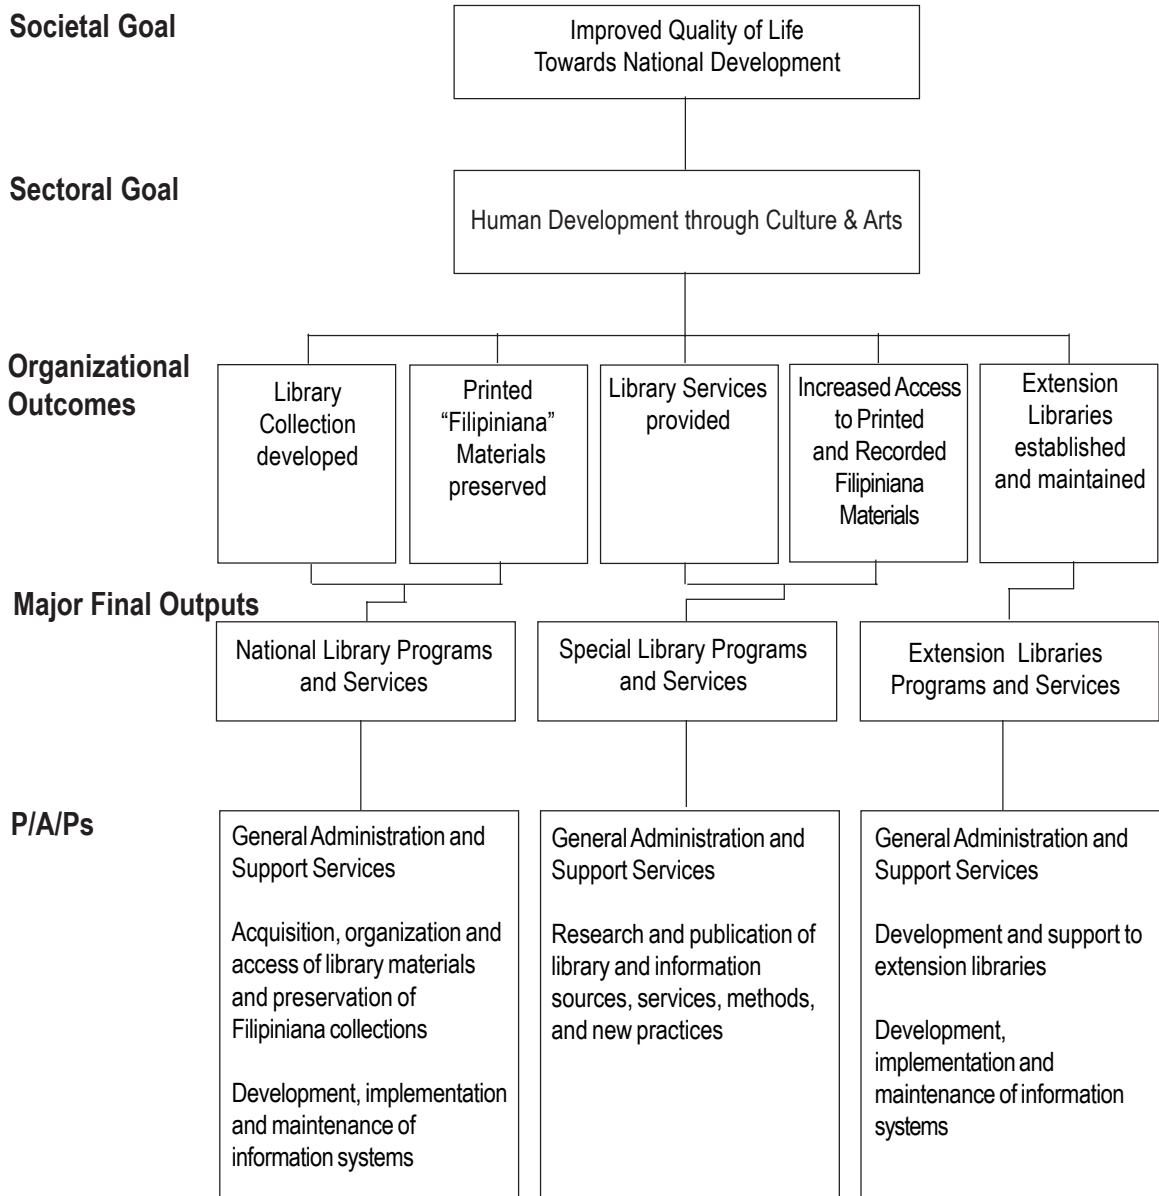

Legal Basis

- Royal Order No. 689 (August 12, 1887) established in Manila the Royal Museo-Biblioteca de Filipinas that served as the cornerstone of the present National Library.
- Philippine Commission Act. No. 96 (March 5, 1901) marked the foundation of public libraries in the Philippines.
- Act No. 1849 (June 3, 1908) created the Philippine Public Library.
- Act No. 1935 (May 20, 1909) renamed the Philippine Public Library as Philippine Library.
- Act No. 2572 (January 31, 1918) consolidated the Philippine Library by merging it with two other offices – the Executive Bureau's Division of Archives, Patents, Copyrights and Trademarks, and the Law Library of the Philippine Assembly – to form an organization known as the Philippine Library and Museum (PLM) under the administrative control of the Secretary of Public Instruction.
- Act No. 3477 (December 7, 1928) separated the PLM into the National Library and the National Museum.
- Executive Order No. 94 (s. 1947) reorganized the National Library and changed its name to Bureau of Public Libraries.
- Republic Act No. 3873 (June 18, 1964) renamed the Bureau of Public Libraries to The National Library.

Mandate

The National Library (TNL), as the repository of the printed and recorded cultural heritage of the country and other intellectual literary and information sources shall provide access to these resources for our people's intellectual growth, citizenship building, life-long learning, and enlightenment.
