

National Bureau of Investigation

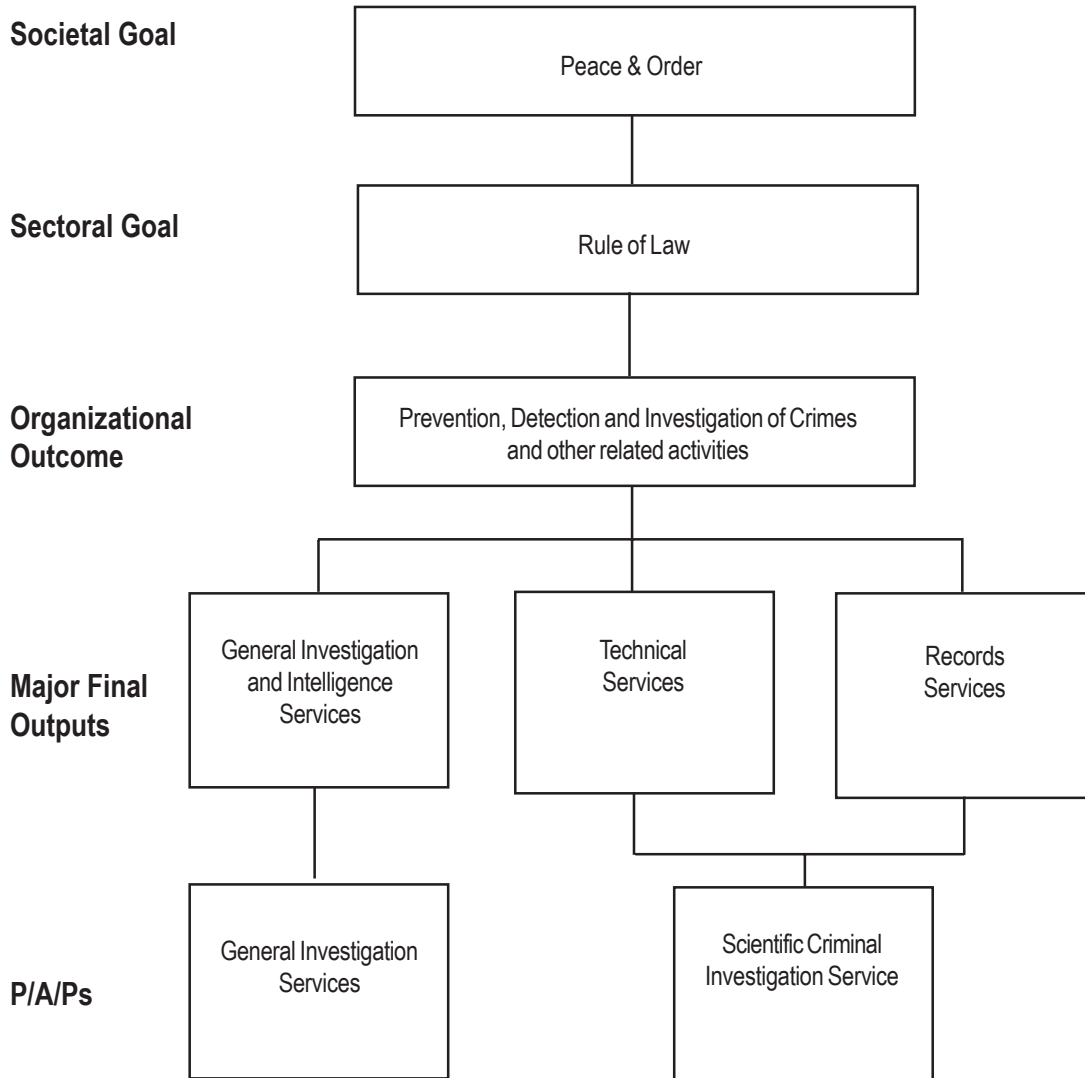

Legal Basis

- Commonwealth Act No. 181 (November 13, 1936) saw the inception of the National Bureau of Investigation, originally called Division of Investigation (patterned after the US Federal Bureau of Investigation).
- Republic Act No. 157 (June 19, 1947) reorganized the Division of Investigation into the Bureau of Investigation under the Department of Justice (DOJ).
- Executive Order No. 94 (October 4, 1949) renamed the Bureau of Investigation to National Bureau of Investigation which remained attached to DOJ.
- Executive Order No. 292 (July 25, 1987), the Administrative Code of 1987, provided for the organization structure and operation of the DOJ and its attached agencies, including the NBI.

Mandate

The National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) undertakes efficient detection and investigation of crimes and other offenses against the laws of the Philippines upon its own initiative and as public interest may require, renders technical assistance upon request in the investigation and detection of crimes and other offenses, coordinates with other national and local police agencies in the maintenance of peace and order, and establishes and maintains an up-to-date scientific crime laboratory. It acts as a national clearing house of criminal and other information for the use of all prosecuting and law enforcement entities of the Philippines: identification records of identifying marks, characteristics, and ownership or possession of all firearms as well as of test bullets fired therefrom.
