

Presidential Commission on Good Government

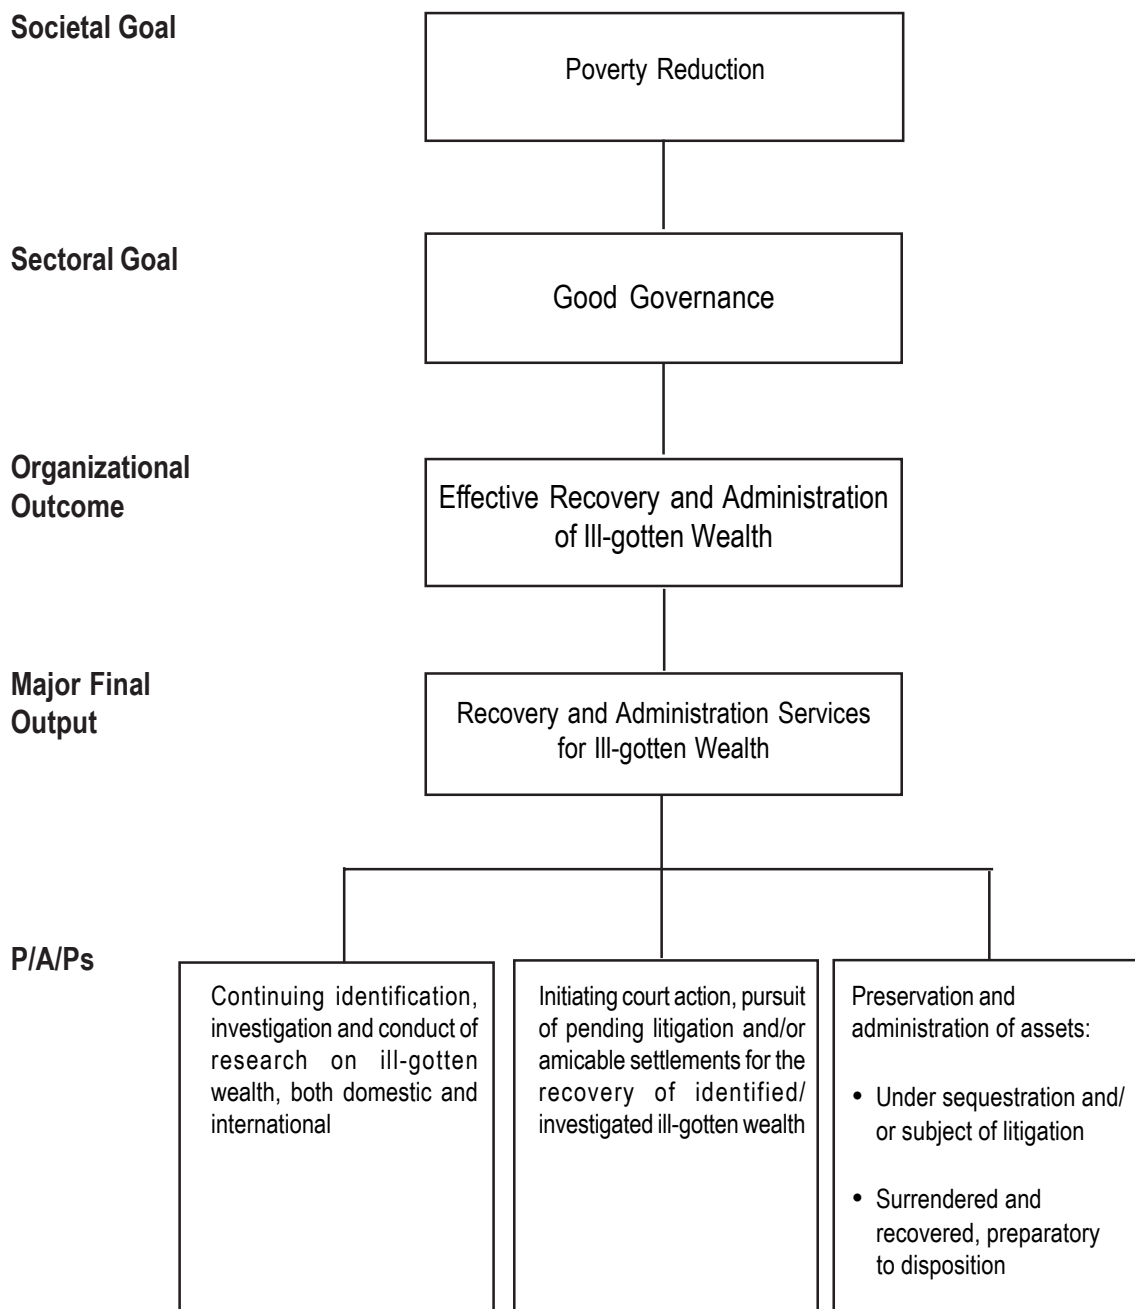

Legal Basis

- Executive Order No. 1 (February 28, 1986), as amended by EO 13, created the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) under the Office of the President (OP).
- Executive Order No. 14 (May 7, 1986), as amended by EO 14-A, defined jurisdiction over cases involving the ill-gotten wealth of the Marcoses, close relatives and associates.
- Executive Order No. 286 (July 25, 1987) created the Sequestered Assets Disposition Authority (SADA) under OP to oversee the disposition of assets and properties recovered by the government, including those voluntarily surrendered to the PCGG.
- Executive Order No. 149 (December 28, 1993) transferred the SADA from the Office of the President to the PCGG.
- Executive Order No. 643 (July 27, 2007) placed the PCGG under the administrative supervision of the Department of Justice (DOJ).

Mandate

The Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) is responsible for the recovery of ill-gotten wealth accumulated by former President Ferdinand E. Marcos, his immediate family, relatives, subordinates and close associates, whether located in the Philippines or abroad, including the takeover or sequestration of all business enterprises and entities owned or controlled by them, during his administration, directly or through nominees, by taking undue advantage of their public office and/or using their powers, authority, influence, connection or relationship.
