

Professional Regulation Commission

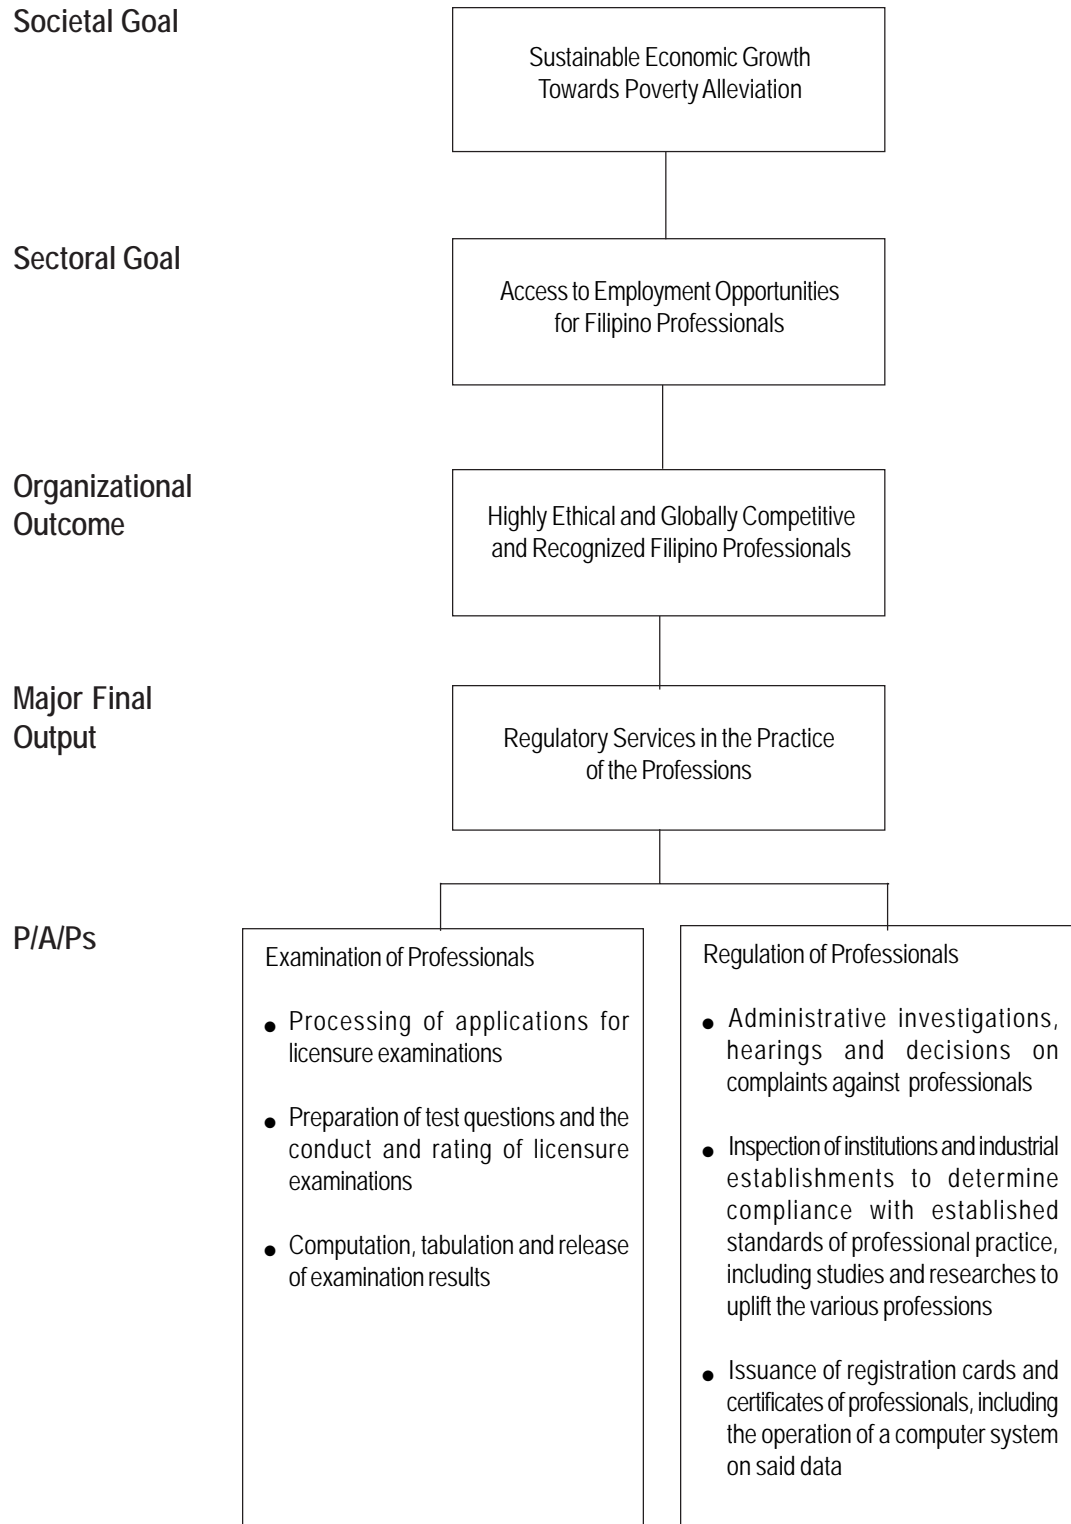

Legal Basis

- Presidential Decree No. 223 (June 22, 1973) created the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) attached to the Office of the President (OP) for general direction and coordination.
- Republic Act No. 8981 (December 5, 2000), "The PRC Modernization Act of 2000", repealed PD 223 and modernized the PRC, headed by a Chairman.
- Executive Order No. 565 (September 11, 2006), as amended by EO 565-A, attached the PRC to the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) for general direction and coordination.

Mandate:

The Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) administers, implements, and enforces the regulatory laws and policies of the country with respect to the regulation and licensing of the various professions and occupations under its jurisdiction, including the enhancement and maintenance of professional and occupational standards and ethics and the enforcement of the rules and regulations relative thereto.
