OCCIDENTAL MINDORO STATE COLLEGE

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

- MANDATE : Occidental Mindoro State College is the only state college in the province of Occidental Mindoro located in the heart of the municipality of San Jose. The College had its humble beginning as a Barrio High School in 1966 patterned after Dr. Pedro Orata's Barangay High School. Mayor Tirso Abeleda in 1967 approved Resolution No. 23 adopting and constituting the self-supporting public secondary school as the San Jose Municipal High School. The late Congressman Pedro C. Medalla, Sr. authored R.A. No. 6568, which elevated San Jose Municipal High School into San Jose National High School (SJNHS). On June 24, 1983, by the virtue of Batas Pambansa Blg. 531, sponsored by the late Congressman Pedro T. Mendiola, Sr. SJNHS was elevated into Occidental Mindoro State College. In the year 2000, R.A. 8760, otherwise known as the General Appropriations Act brought about significant reforms in the educational system specifically to OMSC. It became the host to CHED supervised institutions in the province, namely; the Occidental Mindoro Polytechnic College (OMPC) in Murtha, San Jose, Occidental Mindoro and the Pedro T. Mendiola, Sr. Memorial Technological and Polytechnic College in Brgy. Bagong Sikat, San Jose, Occidental Mindoro. With the integration, OMPC became known as the OMSC-OMPC Campus, while the PTMSMTPC, was renamed to OMSC-PTMSMTPC and now situated at the Labangan Campus. Her Excellency Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo signed RA 9747, otherwise known as an Act renaming Occidental Mindoro National College as the Occidental Mindoro State College, on November 10, 2009.
